NO SALES TODAY

On Account of the Fact That the Redrying Plants Have More Tobacco On Hand Than They Can Properly Take Care of—Reports of Sales Yesterday.

A total of 515,255 pounds of tobacco was sold at the various houses yesterday at an average of $17.58, the houses reporting sales being the Amazon, Home, Liberty and Central. Blocked sales at the Independent and no sales at the Farmers and Planters, Peoples and Growers were reported.

The prices paid for the weed yesterday ranged from $8.50 to $37 per hundred pounds, the latter price being paid at the Home. A number of splendid crops were offered for sale at the houses selling and all brought fancy prices. The week started off well for the growers and there is no indication that the prices will drop in the least from the present prices being given.

In order to give the redrying plants a chance to catch up with the warehouses in the amount of tobacco being sold the loose leaf houses have decided to close for the day. The heavy sales of last week swamped some of the plants and several of them worked overtime to get rid of the extra amount of tobacco. The closing of the warehouses came at a very opportune time as the heavy snows are preventing the growers from bringing their crops to the market.

Although all of the houses will be closed today they will receive tobacco as usual and those who bring their weed will receive courteous treatment wherever they may go.

MISS LIDA WOODS

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Woods of This City Makes Interesting Address on Illiteracy Before the Danville, Ky., Woman's Club.

The following clipping from the Danville Advocate, refers to Miss Lida Duke Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Woods of this city, who for the past several years has been a secretary to President W. A. Ganfield of Centre College.

The January meeting of the Woman's Club was held on Friday, January 6th, with a goodly number present in spite of the inclement weather. Interesting and encouraging reports were made by the various departments.

Following the routine of business of the Club a most interesting talk was made by Miss Lida Woods on "Illiteracy." She paid a beautiful tribute to Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, and called the Illiteracy Commission the eighth wonder of the world because it is a state commission working without money and without price. We were given facts and figures that are appalling. Think of 200,884 illiterates, 150,000 of those white and under forty-five years of age. Kentucky stands twelfth from the bottom and thirty-seventh from the top among the states in illiteracy. The Eighth Congressional District she gave by counties as follows: Anderson, 619; Boyle, 1,525; Garrard, 834; Jessamine, 1,359; Lincoln, 1,800; Madison, 2,600; Mercer, 879; Shelby, 1,710, making a total number of illiterates in this district of 11,326. With 87,000 illiterate voters in the state voting laws on us, isn't it time we "take it upon ourselves," as she so touchingly pleaded, to see these conditions righted. Much of the crime, liquor problem, child labor, disease, inefficiency of public school system is attributable to this source.

Miss Woods is a most interesting and convincing speaker and was thoroughly enjoyed by the audience. We regret that every woman in the town and county could not have heard her and been awakened to the condition of things as they are, and inspired each to do her part, small or large, toward righting them.

TRIAL TODAY

The trial of Mr. Roy Giehlis, who is charged with practicing without a proper license, will be held today before Squire Fred W. Bauer. Mr. Giehlis was arrested last week at the instigation of some of the local physicians. He claims that chiropractors do not come under the laws regarding licenses, no provision having been made for persons practicing this science. The case will attract a great deal of attention. Mr. Giehlis is certainly a fine young man in every respect and has made a great many friends during his brief stay in this city.

PRACTICING ON OPERETTA

The members of the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs of the Maysville High School are now very busy practicing for the operetta, "Pocahontas," to be given by them in the near future. The operetta is very amusing according to reports from those who have seen the practice and promises to be one of the main attractions of the winter. It will be presented sometime during the month of February.

EPWORTH LEAGUE SOCIAL

The monthly business and social meeting of the Epworth League of the Third Street M. E. Church will be held this evening at the church beginning at 7 o'clock. After a short business session the evening will be spent in games and the reading of the League's Logarithmic Literary Ledger. The officers are requested to bring their reports. Everyone invited to the social.

NO TRUTH IN REPORT

A report was circulated in this city and county yesterday that the roof of the Peoples Warehouse at the corner of Front and Bank streets had collapsed on account of the weight of the heavy snow that had fallen in the past few days. There was absolutely no truth in this report, and the Peoples house is receiving tobacco as usual.

SUFFERS PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Mr. Harvey Wells of East Third street suffered a very painful accident while working at the Grawers Warehouse yesterday. One of the iron hooks used in handling baskets of tobacco became caught in his hand inflicting a very painful wound. He will not be able to use his hand for some time.

A report from the Hospital this morning is to the effect that Mr. Lee Dinger, who has been suffering with pneumonia, is improving slowly.

CREATE NEW DISTRICT

Carlisle, Ky., January 14—The commissioners, appointed to redistrict Nicholas county, met in this city yesterday, and it is learned that they have decided to report in favor of increasing the number of magisterial districts from four to probably five. It is proposed to establish a new district in the southern portion of the county, between Main street in Carlisle and Hinkston Creek and to add a large strip of the northern end of district No. 1 to district No. 2. The commissioners are expected to soon file their report with the County Court. The changes proposed will require a change in a number of the voting precincts and will probably increase the number from thirteen to fifteen.

PITIFUL CONDITION

Was That of Woman and Three Children Found in Tenement Home By Mrs. Cora A. Peddicord, Superintendent of the City Mission.

Another of the many instances of poverty in the midst of plenty was found yesterday morning by Mrs. Cora A. Peddicord, Superintendent of the City Mission. This time it was the story of desertion by a worthless husband and a mother's brave attempt to keep a family together and to provide for them in the best manner possible.

While on a tour of inspection Mrs. Peddicord came to a home in one of the alleys near the center of the city, inhabited in the main by colored people. In a room in one of the houses she found a woman and three children without the necessities of life. There was no covering on the floor of any kind, and a few chairs, a table and a bed were the only articles of furniture in the room. The room was exceedingly dirty. There was no stove, all of the cooking for the family of four being done over a grate.

On the bed one of the sons of the woman lay ill. Such was the poverty of the family that there were no covering for the sick child, except a few old coats that had been gathered by loving hands. There had been no doctor to examine the child and to determine whether or not it had a contagious disease and to administer its medicines.

Mrs. Peddicord immediately supplied a covering for the sick child and later brought some coverings for the floor. She took them some nourishing food and supplied several other necessities of life. Later a physician was sent to the home to administer to the sick child.

There are instances of poverty like and even worse in this city every day. And Mrs. Peddicord as Superintendent of the Mission Home, makes it her duty to find these persons and to see that they become properly clothed and fed. But she cannot do this without the aid of the citizens of Maysville who are more fortunate. Those who have old clothing and other things they do not need, particularly old bedding and coverings for floors are urged to donate them to the Mission. They will be sent to the places most needed. In zero weather, many homes are without floor coverings and bedding. A special appeal is being made by the Mission for these things and certainly the good people of this city are willing to aid others just that much.

MADE SELECTION THIS MORNING

The Board of Directors met this morning at 10 o'clock in the office of the Chamber of Commerce in the First-Standard Bank Building to make a final choice for secretary of the organization, to succeed Mr. Thomas P. Boone, who recently resigned to accept a similar position with the Henderson, Ky., Board of Trade. The Board has quite a number of gentlemen under consideration for this very responsible position and all of them are leaders in their work. Nearly all of them have been examined by the Board, but nothing could be learned of the choice of the members of executive body of the organization at the time of press.

BE PATIENT

If your Ledger does not arrive exactly on time within the next few days be patient and remember that on account of the heavy snows the boys can not get around in their deliveries as quickly as they can in good weather. The condition of the streets makes walking for them very precarious and they often are compelled to break paths to get to many of the houses.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Third Street M. E. Church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. John A. Thomas at 218 Walnut street. A full attendance of the membership is desired.

Mr. Robert L. Hoeflich left this morning for Florida to spend several weeks. He will visit with his nephew, Mr. Linn Hoeflich and later will go to Havana, Cuba.
